NOTES

The Feast of Trumpets
"Rosh Hashanah" is known by the Jewish people as "the day no one knows the day or the hour", because the feast day begins once a new moon is sighted and others are able to receive that information. The Feast of Trumpets is actually a 2-day feast, and no one really knows "the day or the hour" until it happens and they learn about it. Many Messianic Jews believe that the rapture will take place on the Feast of Trumpets some year "with the trumpet call of God" (1 Thes. 4:16, 1 Cor. 15:50-53, Matt. 24:30-31, Rev. 7:9-14)

The Day of Atonement
"Yom Kippur" is the holiest day of the Jewish year, and provides prophetic insight regarding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ our Messiah, the restoration of national Israel, and the final judgment of the world. The Day of Atonement alludes to the two great atonements given by the LORD - the first for those among the nations who turn to Yeshua (Jesus) for cleansing and forgiveness, and the second for the purification of ethnic Israel during the great Day of the LORD at the end of days. (Rev. 6:15-9:21 & 11:15-19)

"What Shall We Do?"
Acts 2:36-47
John 6:26-29, 10:22-33
Rom. 6, 7, & 8
Rev. 1:1-3
